SECTION 2. CHANGE OF ADDRESS

The county of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc.'s principal office may be changed only by amendment of these bylaws.

SECTION 3. OTHER OFFICES

The BCHC Education Fund, Inc., may also have offices at such other places, within or without (outside) the state of California, where it is qualified to do business, as its business may require and as the board of directors may, from time to time, designate.

ARTICLE 2
PURPOSES

SECTION 1. NONPROFIT PURPOSES

The BCHC Education Fund, Inc. is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SECTION 2. OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSES

The primary objectives and purposes of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall be to educate people on how to utilize the principles of Leave No Trace for preserving and improving the backcountry and wilderness areas of California; to promote educational programs that benefit stock users, and to promote cooperative interaction with other user groups regarding safety, care, and the protection of backcountry resources. The BCHC Education Fund, Inc. may provide financial support for qualified programs that meet the corporation's specific objectives and purposes.

SECTION 3. IRREVOCABLE DEDICATION OF ASSETS

This BCHC Education Fund, Inc.'s assets are irrevocably dedicated to public benefit purposes. No part of net earnings, properties or assets of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of any private person or individual, or to any BCHC Education Fund director or officer of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. On liquidation or dissolution, all properties and assets remaining after payment or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation that is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purpose and that has established its exempt status under Internal Revenue Service Code 501(c)(3).

ARTICLE 3 DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. DIRECTORS

BCHC Education Fund, Inc. directors are also officers of the corporation. The BCHC Education Fund directors shall be the following Backcountry Horsemen of California officers: President, 1st Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Vice President of Education, Vice President of Public Lands, Vice President of Membership and the Immediate Past President. Any Vice President (VP) position may be a shared, co-VP position. Each position shall have one vote on the board except each person sharing a co-VP position shall have only one-half vote.

SECTION 2. POWERS

Subject to the provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation law and any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation and bylaws relating to action required or permitted to be taken or approved by the members, if any, of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., the activities and affairs of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall be conducted, and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the board of directors.

SECTION 3. CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND SELF-DEALING TRANSACTIONS POLICY

Each officer/director of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. owes a duty of undivided loyalty to the Education Fund., is obligated to be fair, must always make decisions that are in the best interest of the Education Fund, and must not seek to benefit personally from the activities or resources of the Education Fund in any self-dealing transaction.

Any member of an appointed committee or a member of the board of directors of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., will not participate in any action where there is a conflict of interest. These members will make their conflict known to the President of the board and excuse themselves from serving. Should the President of the board become aware of a conflict of interest, he will excuse the member and document this action in the minutes.

SECTION 4. DUTIES

It shall be the duty of BCHC Education Fund directors to:

- (a) Perform any and all duties imposed on them collectively or individually by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., or by these bylaws
- (b) Act in a fiduciary relationship with the BCHC Education Fund, carefully protecting its interests, exercising their powers in good faith and refraining from doing anything that harms the Education Fund. This means the directors puts the BCHC Education Fund's interests ahead of their own and always act in the best interest of the organization.
- (c) Owe a duty of care and duty of loyalty to the Education Fund, always acting in its best interest, being fair and making decisions that are in the best interest of the Education Fund.
- (d) Avoid personal benefit through self-dealing transactions and other conflicts of interest.
- (e) Appoint and remove, employ and discharge, and, except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, prescribe the duties and fix the compensation, if any, of all agents, and employees of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc.
- (f) Supervise all officers, agents, and employees of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. to assure that their duties are performed properly

- (g) Submit an annual budget, projecting expenses of the position, to the Treasurer no later than December 31 of each year
- (h) Maintain the care, custody and control of all BCHC-owned property and equipment, returning it at the end of their term of office
- (i) Volunteer at the Rendezvous and serve in their area(s) of expertise
- (j) Meet at such times and places as required by these bylaws
- (k) Register their addresses, both, postal and email, with the Secretary of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. and notices of meetings mailed or emailed to that such addresses shall be valid notices thereof

SECTION 5. ELECTION AND TERMS OF OFFICE

The election of BCHC, Inc. officers will take place at the Fall Meeting of the BCHC Board of Directors. Officers shall serve from January 1 for two years. Those elected to positions in BCHC, Inc. become directors of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. (BCHC Election Policy # 1021-4 may be found in the BCHC Policy Manual.)

The President, Treasurer, and VP of Education, will be elected in even years while the 1st Vice President, VP of Public Lands, VP of Membership and Secretary will be elected in odd years.

Each BCHC Education Fund director shall hold office until his replacement is elected and takes office. If an office is shared and one of the co-VPs resigns, the President, with the remaining co-VP, will allow the remaining co-VP to continue on his own or will appoint a new co-VP partner.

SECTION 6. COMPENSATION

BCHC Education Fund directors shall serve without compensation except that they shall be allowed reasonable advancement or reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their regular duties as specified in BCHC policies and rules.

SECTION 7. PLACE OF MEETINGS

Meetings shall be held at such place designated from time to time by the President or by the board of directors. A meeting of the BCHC Education Fund members/directors may be conducted, in whole or in part, by electronic transmission (including telephone conferencing), or by electronic video screen communication if (1) BCHC implements reasonable measures to provide members/directors in person (or, if proxies are allowed, by proxy) a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the members/directors, and (2) if any member/director votes or takes other action at the meeting by means of electronic transmission or electronic video screen communication, a record of that vote or action is maintained by the Secretary.

Note: Members/directors are one and the same as described in this section.

SECTION 8. REGULAR AND ANNUAL MEETINGS

Regular and Annual meetings of BCHC Education Fund directors shall be held as called by the President.

SECTION 9. SPECIAL MEETINGS

Special meetings of the BCHC Education Fund Board of Directors may be called by the President, or by any two BCHC Education Fund directors, and such meetings shall be held at the place, within or without (outside) the state of California, designated by the person or persons calling the meeting.

SECTION 10. EXECUTIVE SESSIONS

The President may call an executive (closed) session meeting if the topic to be discussed is considered too complex or sensitive for general disclosure to the BCHC membership. During the executive session the Secretary will take separate meeting minutes from the normal meeting minutes and clearly mark them CONFIDENTIAL. The record should include place of the meeting, board members present, any actions taken, abstentions if voting took place. The minutes are confidential and should only be distributed to those present at the session. At the end of the discussions the President will declare the executive session complete and remind all present that all matters discussed are to remain confidential and must not be discussed outside the executive session.

Should, at a later date, there be a request for the executive session minutes, it will be up to the board to determine whether the minutes will be sent. If the board determines the topic is too sensitive, the request will be denied but a de-identified, desensitized summary will be provided.

SECTION 11. NOTICE OF MEETINGS

Meetings of the board shall be held upon thirty (30) days' notice by first class mail or forty-eight (48) hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone or email. If sent by mail, the notice shall be deemed to be delivered on its deposit in the mails. Such notices shall be addressed to each BCHC Education Fund director at his address as shown in BCHC's membership database.

SECTION 12. CONTENTS OF NOTICE

Notice of meetings shall specify the place, day, hour and type of meeting. The purpose of any board meeting need not be specified in the notice.

SECTION 13. CONSENT TO HOLD MEETINGS

The purpose of this section is to describe how the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board is permitted to meet without all BCHC Education Fund directors in attendance.

BCHC Education Fund directors unable to attend a meeting may agree to abide by the meeting's results/actions using the Consent to Hold Meeting Form posted under the Forms tab on the BCHC website. It is the BCHC Education Fund director's responsibility to obtain, complete and submit the form to the Secretary prior to the meeting date. If a BCHC Education Fund director fails to submit the form and does not attend, the meeting may still be conducted, and the absent BCHC Education Fund director will have tacitly agreed to abide by the meeting's results/actions.

SECTION 14. QUORUM FOR MEETINGS

A quorum shall consist of a minimum of five (5) BCHC Education Fund directors. Except as otherwise provided in these bylaws or in the Articles of Incorporation of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., or by law, no business shall be considered by the board at any meeting at which a quorum is not present. In other words, topics may be discussed but no votes or actions may be taken.

SECTION 15. MAJORITY ACTION AS BOARD ACTION

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the BCHC Education Fund directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the board of directors.

SECTION 16. CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Meetings of the board of directors shall be presided over by the President of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. or, in his absence, by the 1st Vice President. In the case both the President and 1st VP are absent, a chairperson will be chosen by a majority of the BCHC Education Fund directors present at the meeting. The Secretary of the BCHC

Education Fund, Inc., as defined herein, shall act as secretary of all meetings of the board, provided that, in his absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Meetings shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order; as such rules may be revised from time to time, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with these bylaws, with the articles of this corporation, or with provisions of law.

Proxy voting is allowed. The transfer of voting rights will be in writing, sent in advance of the meeting, to the BCHC Education Fund director who will vote in your place and to the BCHC Education Fund Secretary. Proxy voting is not a long-term set-up but rather specific to a particular meeting which is to be stated in the written transfer document.

SECTION 17. ACTION BY UNANIMOUS WRITTEN CONSENT WITHOUT MEETING

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board of directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as the unanimous vote of the BCHC Education Fund directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law which relates to action so taken shall state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the board of directors without a meeting and that the bylaws of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. authorize the directors to so act and such statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

SECTION 18. VACANCIES

Vacancies on the board of directors shall exist (1) On the death, resignation, or removal of any BCHC Education Fund director, and (2) Whenever the number of authorized BCHC Education Fund directors is increased.

Any vacancies on the board will be filled through appointment by the BCHC President.

SECTION 19. NONLIABILITY OF DIRECTORS

BCHC Education Fund, Inc. directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the BCHC Education Fund.

SECTION 20. INDEMNIFICATION BY CORPORATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AND OTHER AGENTS

The directors and officers of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall be indemnified by the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of this state.

SECTION 21. INSURANCE FOR CORPORATE AGENTS

The board of directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. (including a director, officer, employee, or other agent of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc.) against any liability as authorized by law.

ARTICLE 4 OFFICERS

SECTION 1. OFFICERS

The officers of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall be a president, a secretary, and a chief financial officer who shall be designated the treasurer. The BCHC President shall serve as the president of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. and the BCHC Treasurer shall serve as chief financial officer. The following BCHC officers shall serve as directors on the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board: President, Secretary Treasurer, 1st Vice President, Vice President of Education, Vice President of Public Lands, Vice President of Membership, and Immediate Past President. The BCHC Education Fund, Inc. may also have, as determined by the board of directors, any other subordinate officers. Only one BCHC Education Fund, Inc. office shall be held by the same person except that neither the Secretary nor the Treasurer may serve as the President of the board.

SECTION 2. SUBORDINATE OFFICERS

The BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board of Directors may appoint such other subordinate officers or agents as it may deem desirable, and such officers shall serve such terms, have such authority, and perform such duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

The following non-voting subordinate officers under leadership of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board, are considered advisory and may be invited to attend monthly board meetings as needed, Newsletter Editor, Webmaster, Parliamentary Advisor, Saw Program Manager, Safety Officers, Volunteer Hours Coordinator, and Rendezvous Secretary.

SECTION 3. REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION

Removal for Cause: Any BCHC Education Fund, Inc. director or appointee who intentionally or wantonly or recklessly causes an action to be taken based on fraud, oppression or malice or gross negligence can be removed for cause. The Secretary, upon direction of the President (or 1st Vice President), will notify the director or appointee in question, in writing, of the negative actions. That director or appointee shall have 10 days to respond either in person or by electronic communications. If the remaining board decides the actions are still cause for removal, they may do so with a 2/3 vote. The vote may be in person or by electronic communication.

In addition, a BCHC Education Fund, Inc. director or appointee may be removed for missing three consecutive meetings or for allowing his BCHC membership to lapse. Membership lapse policy is the same as for all BCHC members.

Removal Without Cause: A director or appointee may be removed without cause if given the above notification and 2/3 vote to remove.

A director's or appointee's removal from the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board (501c3), with or without cause, places that director or appointee on suspension within the BCHC, Inc. Executive Committee (501c4) until such time as the State Board of Directors (for the 501c4) can either meet or conduct an email vote to ratify the removal. Removal requires a 2/3 majority of State Directors voting. Information given to the State Board of Directors shall be confidential and may not be discussed outside of that board.

Resignation: Any officer or appointee may resign at any time by giving written notice to the board of directors or to the President or Secretary of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later date specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. If a member of the Executive Committee resigns from the BCHC, Inc. Board, he simultaneously resigns from the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board and vice versa.

SECTION 4. VACANCIES

Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise of any officer or appointee shall be filled by appointment by the President in consultation with and approval by the board. The appointee shall hold that position until the original term of the office holder is completed.

SECTION 5. DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT

The BCHC President shall be the chief executive officer of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. and shall, subject to the control of the board of directors, supervise and control the affairs of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. and the activities of the officers.

The President is elected in an even year for a two-year term and votes only when there is a tie. The President shall perform all duties incident to his office and such other duties as may be required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., or by these bylaws, or which may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors, following Parliamentary Procedures as defined in Robert's Rules of Order.

Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these bylaws, the President shall, in the name of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., execute such deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, checks, or other instruments which may from time to time be authorized by the board of directors.

SECTION 6. DUTIES OF THE 1ST VICE PRESIDENT

The BCHC 1st Vice President is elected in an odd year for a two-year term and is a voting member of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board.

The 1st Vice President (VP) shall, in the absence of the President, or in the event of the President's inability or refusal to act, perform all the duties of the President. He shall have such power and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law or as may be prescribed by the BCHC, Inc. Directors.

The primary duty of the 1st VP will be to meet all required deadlines to obtain all insurance coverages and coordinate all unit insurance submissions, inquiries and renewals.

SECTION 7. DUTIES OF THE SECRETARY

The BCHC Secretary is elected in an odd year for a two-year term and is a voting member of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board.

The Secretary shall:

Certify and keep at the physical location of the office of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. the original or a copy of these bylaws as amended or otherwise altered to date.

Keep at the physical location of the office of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. or at such other place as the board may determine, a book of minutes of all meetings of the BCHC Education Fund directors, and, if applicable, meetings of committees of BCHC Education Fund directors recording therein the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, how called, how notice thereof was given, the names of those present or represented at the meeting, and the proceedings thereof.

See that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws or as required by law.

Be custodian of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc.'s records, the execution of which, on behalf of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. is authorized by law or these bylaws.

Exhibit, within a reasonable time, materials to any director of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., or to his agent or attorney, on request therefore, the bylaws and the minutes of the proceedings of the directors of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. These documents will be made available either electronically or in hard copy during normal weekday work hours.

Provide support for the BCHC Grant Committee. (Forms and procedures may be found in the BCHC Policy Manual, Grant Program, #0221-3.)

In general, perform all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as may be required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., or by these bylaws, or which may be assigned to him from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 8. DUTIES OF THE TREASURER

The BCHC Treasurer is elected in an even year for a two-year term and is a voting member of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board.

Subject to the provisions of these bylaws relating to the “Execution of Instruments, Deposits and Funds,” the BCHC Treasurer shall:

Be bonded.

Have charge and custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., and deposit all such funds in the name of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected by the board of directors.

Receive, and give receipt for, monies due and payable to the corporation from any source whatsoever. Authorize other officers to issue receipts, as necessary.

Act with the VP of Education (Grant Committee Chairman) and the Secretary in administering the BCHC Grant Program. (Forms and procedures may be found in the BCHC Policy Manual, Grant Program, #0221-3.)

Disburse, or cause to be disbursed, the funds of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. as may be directed by the board of directors.

Keep and maintain adequate and correct accounts of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc.’s properties and business transactions, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, and losses.

Exhibit, within a reasonable time, the books of account and financial records to any BCHC Education Fund director of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., or to his agent or attorney, by request there for. These documents will be made available either electronically or in hard copy during normal weekday work hours.

Propose and receive board approval prior to investing the fund’s assets in interest bearing or growth accounts. Ensure adequate diversification of the fund’s assets in order to provide as much security of principle as practical while still achieving adequate financial growth.

Render to the President and BCHC Education Fund directors, whenever requested, an account of any or all of his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial condition of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc.

Prepare, or cause to be prepared, and certify, or cause to be certified, the financial statements to be included in any required reports.

In general, perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer and such other duties as may be required by law, by the Articles of Incorporation of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., or these bylaws, or which may be assigned from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 9. DUTIES OF THE VICE PRESIDENT OF EDUCATION

The Vice President (VP) of Education is elected in an even year for a two-year term and is a voting member of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board. The VP of Education may be a co-chair position. The position shall have one vote on the board except if a co-VP position, each co-VP shall have only one-half vote.

The VP of Education will perform the following tasks and have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law or by BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Directors.

Serve as chairman-of the Education Fund Grant Committee in addition to the Treasurer, Secretary and two other BCHC members as called for in BCHC Grant Policy (Forms and procedures may be found in the BCHC Policy Manual, Grant Program, #0221-3.)

The VP of Education will also chair the Education Steering Committee, the Wilderness Rider Steering Committee, and Youth Activities Committee.

SECTION 13. DUTIES OF THE IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT

The Immediate Past President serves until a new President is elected and a new Immediate Past President replaces him. This is a voting position on the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board. The position shall have one vote on the board.

The Immediate Past President provides continuity to incoming officers and assists the President in the performance of his duties by providing knowledge gained from experience as President. The Immediate Past President serves as chair of the Nominating Committee.

SECTION 15. DUTIES OF THE NEWSLETTER EDITOR

The Newsletter Editor is appointed by the BCHC President for an indeterminate term. The appointment is made in consultation with and approval of the Executive Committee. At the end of the President's term, the board may extend the appointment of the Newsletter Editor. This is an advisory, non-voting position. The Newsletter Editor may attend and report at BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board and other BCHC board meetings as invited by the President and may be asked to present at Leadership Training sessions.

The Newsletter Editor is responsible for production of four editions of BCHC's official newspaper, The Backcountry News, each year. The purpose of the newsletter is to keep BCHC members and other interested parties such as public lands personnel and legislators, aware of activities and actions of the various units as well as offering articles and reports of general interest to members throughout the state. Steps in production include, but are not limited to, setting and meeting deadlines; soliciting and receiving articles and photographs from officers, directors, unit members and others; determining materials to be included in each edition of the paper according to space available; proofreading articles and correcting spelling, grammar and punctuation; laying out pages using Adobe Creative Suite InDesign software and Photoshop editing tools or other appropriate technology; requesting mailing labels and lists of special members from the BCHC VP of Membership; coordinating payment for printing and mailing with the BCHC Treasurer, and providing the final digital copy of each quarterly newspaper to the VP of Membership for emailing to members and the BCHC Webmaster for posting on the website.

The Newsletter Editor assembles a committee to conduct and judge the annual Max and Irene Cochran Journalism Award competition. The Max and Irene Cochran Award is presented each year to the unit and its editor that, in the opinion of the judges, stand out above all others. If possible, the Newsletter Editor presents the award and certificates of achievement at Rendezvous.

SECTION 16. DUTIES OF THE WEBMASTER

The BCHC Webmaster is appointed by the BCHC President for an indeterminate term. The appointment is made in consultation with and approval of the Executive Committee. At the end of the President's term, the board may extend the appointment of the Webmaster. This is an advisory, non-voting position. The Webmaster may attend and report at BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board and other BCHC board meetings as invited by the President and may be asked to present at Leadership Training sessions.

The BCHC Webmaster's duties include maintaining hosting services and domain ownership, maintaining and updating the BCHC website, managing the BCHC Facebook page (and/or any other social media presence), and offering support and guidance for all units' online presence.

The focus of the Webmaster's duties is to keep accurate information available online, in a manner that members and the public can easily access and navigate. The BCHC online presence MUST be politically correct and only official statements supported by BCHC/BCHA may be shared. The Webmaster may need to monitor and guide BCHC units' online presence.

SECTION 17. DUTIES OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ADVISOR

The BCHC Parliamentary Advisor is appointed by the BCHC President for an indeterminate term. The appointment is made in consultation with and approval of the Executive Committee. At the end of the President's term, the board may extend the appointment of the Parliamentary Advisor. An advisory, non-voting position. The Parliamentary Advisor may attend and report at BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board and other BCHC board meetings as invited by the President and may be asked to present at Leadership Training sessions.

The Parliamentary Advisor's primary duties are to review BCHC Education Fund, Inc. bylaws on an annual basis and to make recommendations for updates to the BCHC Education Fund Board.

SECTION 18. DUTIES OF THE SAW PROGRAM MANAGER

The BCHC Saw Program Manager is appointed by the BCHC President for an indeterminate term. The appointment is made in consultation with and approval of the Executive Committee. This is an advisory, non-voting position on the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board. At the end of the President's term, the board may extend the appointment of the Saw Program Manager.

The Saw Program Manager is responsible for jurisdiction over and management of all BCHC Sawyer Instructors as well as for maintaining all policies, teaching materials, sawyer documents and agreements with the National Forest Service governing the BCHC Sawyer Program. Submits to BCHC Safety Officers all reports of saw-related incidents and near misses. Reports all saw-related incidents and near misses to the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board and the National Forest Service Region 5 Saw Coordinator.

Identifies sawyers whose demonstrated skills are no longer considered adequate or who are a danger to themselves or others and recommends revocation of their Sawyer Certification Card to the BCHC Safety Officers and the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board for discipline.

Ensures proper Volunteer Agreements (and other like agreements) are in place and retains copies of those agreements for three years from the closing date of the action.

SECTION 19. DUTIES OF THE SAFETY OFFICERS

Three BCHC Safety Officers are appointed by the BCHC President to serve staggered terms of indeterminate length. The appointment is made in consultation with and approval of the Executive Committee. These are advisory, non-voting positions on the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board. At the end of the President's term, the board may extend the appointment of the Safety Officers. Safety Officers may attend and report at BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board and other BCHC board meetings as invited by the President and may be asked to present at Leadership Training sessions.

The Safety Officers are responsible for investigating and reporting all packing and sawyer incidents and reporting and recommending corrective actions to the Incident Corrective Action Committee (ICAC).

The Incident Corrective Action Committee (ICAC) is comprised of the BCHC President, 1st Vice President, Vice President of Education and the three Safety Officers. The purpose of the ICAC is to investigate every incident, both packing and sawyer. The Safety Officers investigate the incident and develop a report and recommendations for presentation to the ICAC. The ICAC reviews the Safety Officers' initial report and recommendations and develops corrective actions. These corrective actions will be provided to the involved unit president(s) for implementation. The report will then be rewritten to remove all identifying names/places and sent to all BCHC unit presidents as an information report, displayed on the BCHC website and published in the BCHC newsletter, if deemed appropriate. Records of all reports and corrective actions will be maintained by the Safety Officers. The Safety Officers must be very familiar with the Forest Service FSH 6709.11 Health and Safety Code Handbook.

In addition to the above duties, the Safety Officers will review all BCHC safety documents and update them as necessary.

Section 22. DUTIES OF THE VOLUNTEER HOURS COORDINATOR

The Volunteer Hours Coordinator shall be appointed by the BCHC President to serve during his term of office. This is a non-voting position on the BCHC Education Fund Inc. Board. At the end of the term the incoming BCHC President may extend the appointment.

The primary duties of the Volunteer Hours Coordinator will be to collect unit volunteer hours data, compile and submit a summary report of volunteer hours to BCHA and public agencies including but not limited to U.S. Forest Service, Bureau of Land Management and National Park Service. In addition, the Volunteer Hours Coordinator will provide training and assist units with questions and concerns regarding Volunteer Service Hours reporting and will determine and arrange presentation of the Volunteer Service Hours awards at Rendezvous. Further, the Volunteer Hours Coordinator shall submit a draft report to the Executive Committee prior to submitting the required reports to BCHA. They shall also coordinate with the Treasurer to see that awards are ordered and present the Volunteer Service Hours awards at Rendezvous.

The Volunteer Hours Coordinator shall notify the BCHC President and Secretary no later than February 5th if a unit has failed to comply with turning in its volunteer hours report by the February 1st deadline.

Section 23. DUTIES OF THE RENDEZVOUS SECRETARY

The Rendezvous Secretary shall be appointed by the BCHC President to serve during his term of office. This is a non-voting position on the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board. At the end of the term the incoming BCHC President may extend the appointment.

The Rendezvous Secretary will be responsible for receiving and tracking the registrations for Rendezvous. The Rendezvous Secretary shall stay in close contact with the Rendezvous Committee and be included in meetings, communications, etc., as necessary. The Rendezvous Secretary shall work with the designated Rendezvous Committee to assist in any way possible. The Rendezvous Secretary would also serve to keep the Education Fund and Executive Committee informed of Rendezvous progress. The Rendezvous Secretary, working with the BCHC Treasurer shall be responsible for tracking the income and expenses of Rendezvous. An accounting report shall be completed at the end of the Rendezvous for presentation to the State Board of Directors at its next meeting.

ARTICLE 5 COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. COMMITTEES

The BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall have such committees as may from time to time be designated by resolution of the board of directors. Such committees may consist of persons who are not also members of the board. These committees shall act in an advisory and/or directive capacity to the board.

SECTION 2. MEETINGS AND ACTION OF COMMITTEES

Meetings and action of committees shall be governed by, noticed, held, and taken in accordance with the provisions of these bylaws concerning meetings of the board of directors. The board of directors may adopt rules and regulations pertaining to the conduct of meetings of committees to the extent that such rules and regulations are not inconsistent with the provisions of these bylaws.

ARTICLE 6 EXECUTION OF INSTRUMENTS, DEPOSITS, AND FUNDS

SECTION 1. EXECUTION OF INSTRUMENTS

The board of directors, except as otherwise provided in these bylaws, may by resolution authorize any officer or agent of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc., and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable monetarily for purpose or in any amount.

SECTION 2. CHECKS AND NOTES

Except as otherwise specifically determined by resolution of the board of directors, or as otherwise required by law, checks, drafts, promissory notes, orders for the payment of money, and other evidence of indebtedness of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall be signed by the Treasurer.

SECTION 3. DEPOSITS

All funds of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as the board of directors may select. It is the policy of the board of directors to keep the majority of its assets invested in interest bearing or growth accounts, in effect to live off the interest from these accounts. All initial investments and subsequent investments will not be executed until a board meeting is conducted and a majority vote is acquired. It is the duty of the Treasurer of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. to propose these instruments and for the board to approve their acquisition.

SECTION 4. GIFTS OR DONATIONS

The BCHC Education Fund, Inc. Board of Directors may accept on behalf of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. any contribution, gift, bequest, or devise for the purposes of this corporation.

Businesses or individuals may donate to the BCHC Education Fund as a charitable donation in cash, services or goods. Should a donation be goods or services, the business or individual donor is responsible for assigning the value of these donated goods/services.

A unit receiving a donation will forward the funds to the Education Fund Treasurer for deposit in that unit's 501(c)(3) account as restricted or unrestricted funds, as dictated by the donor. If the donation is goods, the unit should take in and secure the donation, ensuring reporting of the value of the goods. If the donation is services, the unit will report the donor-assigned value to the BCHC Treasurer.

The unit obtaining the donation will notify the BCHC Education Fund Treasurer who will, in turn, supply a charitable donation receipt to the business or individual donor. Only the BCHC Education Fund Treasurer is authorized to issue receipts on behalf of BCHC. The BCHC Education Fund, Inc. is assigned a Tax ID Number by the Attorney General of California.

SECTION 5. GRANTS

The purpose of the BCHC Education Fund, Inc. is to receive and grant charitable monies to be used in educating BCHC membership and the general public about Leave No Trace principles as they apply to stock use in the backcountry. In addition, the charitable funds may be used to support any BCHC Education Fund program. (See BCHC Policy Manual, Grant Program, #0220-3 for grant application procedures and forms.)
